ASCA
Information

- For information regarding what classes you may enter, refer to the rulebooks on the ASCA site: ...
- <https://asca.org/home/business-office/rules-forms/>
- The Novice A Class is for handlers that have not placed an Obedience or Rally title on a dog from ASCA or any registry and the dog does not have an Obedience or Rally title from any registry.
- All dogs competing for ASCA titles are required to start at Novice and work through Utility regardless of titles awarded by other Registries.
- No entry shall be accepted from a dog or handler disqualified from the ASCA Conformation program; a dog or handler disqualified from all ASCA programs; or a person not in good standing with ASCA

Registration
& Tracking

All Australian Shepherds over the age of 6 months must be registered.
Effective January 1, 2004: All dogs six (6) months and older must have an individual ASCA registration or LEP number or and ASCA tracking (QTracker) number to compete in ASCA sanctioned Obedience Trials. A dog will be allowed to be shown at the trial where the handler applies for an ASCA tracking number. The handler will be issued a receipt by the Registration table valid for sixty (60) days to allow the Business Office time to issue the tracking number. Photo copies or originals of registration or tracking number papers must be presented to the Registration Table upon request when entering ASCA sanctioned Obedience or Rally Trials. Please visit <https://www.asca.org/> for information and <https://www.asca.org/wp-content/uploads/2016/04/trackapp.pdf> for tracking application.

Bitches in
