President's Note

At the November meeting it was mentioned the new stock courses haven't been actively adopted across the country because exhibitors have said if they're not guaranteed a qualifying run, they won't enter the class. I found that both funny and sad. Funny because who is ever guaranteed a qualifying run. Sad because what that meant to me is titles are more important to exhibitors than working with our dogs to learn new skills, try new things, and expand our working relationships.

For all the treasured dogs lost this past year, how many (other than their owners) know the specific titles and accomplishments those dogs earned? And I don't mean that in a bad way. I'm one who lost a dog in the prime of her life this year. I know Kate earned an ATCH, STDds, and APD and then (only after searching thru the certificates she received): ATCH-II, GS-E-SP, JS-E-SP, Accomplished Tournament Dog Bronze, Accomplished Gamblers Dog, Accomplished Standard Dog, Accomplished Snooker Dog Bronze, and Accomplished Jumpers Dog Bronze. But who cares? How many others knew this or considered these the most important things about Kate's life? I hope no one as I want her to be remembered for being a sassy little thing, pushing me to new levels of training and introducing me to the world of stock. I couldn't begin to tell you what titles were earned by the other treasured companions lost this year. What I do remember is how those people and their dogs interacted with each other and the rest of their world. I have watched many a run so impressed with the relationship between handler and dog. I couldn't tell you if it was a qualifying/titling run or not, but I can remember how beautiful it was. That didn't come from drilling the same old thing day in / day out. It came from doing lots of different things, developing a trusting relationship, and being willing to put themselves out there to challenge each other and try new stuff.

For those of you who come to the end of this year having all the friends and dogs that you started the year with, I hope you appreciate your good fortune and I wish you the same for this coming year. For those who have lost a treasured partner, I hope time has brought the ability to replay all those wonderful memories with a smile on your face.

As we enter the crazy times of the holiday season, I hope you all have a safe, happy holiday season and I hope the coming year brings you great joys. And if you start to lose your sanity, take a few minutes and give your dogs an opportunity to work their magic on your tensions and then give them a big hug.

Thanks to all of you who have worked so hard over the last year hosting trials, clinics, and meetings and volunteering to make the ASCNE events such a great success.

Safe and Happy Holidays,
Jean

- Affiliate Report – Carol Landry

ASCNE Affiliate Report for 11/7/2010 By Carol Landry
Committee reports:
Agility- The committee has increased the sanctioning timeline for an agility trial to 60 days before the trial, effective August 1 st , 2010 for all trials sanctioned after October 1 st . The change will allow judges more time to design courses and will give reviewers a better chance to look them over. The affiliate must provide the judge an equipment list and site description 60 days before the trial. The judge of record then has at least 30 days to design courses and then must send the courses to the course reviewer 30 days prior to the trial. They are also asking that the judge send a final copy of any amended courses back to the reviewer at least 7 days prior so that the club will have a complete set of the final courses in case of an emergency judge substitution.

Conformation- They have been working on a fix for the hiring of Finals judges so that people who are campaigning a dog can know in advance of the show year who the Finals judges will be. They are also looking at how the Stock Dog Finals judges are chosen as perhaps a model to work with.

They received two directives from the Board of Directors. The first as to allow Non-Regular judges to solicit assignments. In response they have sent a motion to the BOD to reaffirm the current policy against solicitation with suggestions how to assist Non-Regular judges without allowing solicitation. The second directive was to state that Judges cannot excuse a dog from the ring unless it is covered in the rules. Addressing that is their next item for business. There is a motion on the floor so that the Judge's Code of Ethics are no longer suggestions but instead are enforceable.

DNA- They thank the membership for getting their dogs DNAed before the deadlines.

Education- They have been busy producing informative documents for the ASCA website. They have completed an ASCA FAQ and a Health Information Sheet, as well as some instructional handouts on filling out entry forms. They are in the final stages of creating an ASCA Obedience flyer which should appear soon on the website.

Hall of Fame, Legislative, MVA, Nationals & Strategic Planning- No report.

Health and Genetics- Funds within the ASCA Foundation are proposed to be reallocated for underwriting the registration of DNA samples to the Canine Health Information Center Database. They are just waiting on approval from the donors.

History - The History Committee is now up and running with Jeanne Joy Hartnagle as Committee Chair and Tenley Dexter as Board Liaison, as well as several other members. Among their goals and objectives is to centralize and consolidate historical data and images of the Australian Shepherd and ASCA.

Juniors- They are excited about the educational events they were having at the Texas Nationals.

Obedience- No report.

Rally- Clubs are reporting great success with trials in the new Rally program and many report filled entries.

Stock dog- They welcome member input.

Tracking- They are currently discussing expanding the titles to more closely resemble other ASCA performance events. The downside to the expansion is that most tracking trials fill as it is and it will be frustrating for members to find enough venues to complete these titles.

- Library Report – Gull Gullickson –
 - Gull was not present
 - Gull and Robin are working together to post the list of library books on the ASCNE web site
- Sunshine Report
 - Frank Chamberlain – memorial donation sent to Lincoln County Animal Shelter in Edgecomb, ME
 - Sheila Dolan – memorial donation
 - Cathy Bakke had bypass surgery the week after HMM; reports are that she is doing well
- Event Updates:
 - Oct 1-3 - HMM – Westfield, MA - Peter Kontos
 - It rained hard and on Friday and the dogs herded cattle in deep puddles, Obedience was cancelled Friday night. Some entries were refunded
 - Stock F course went well – it was mentioned that the new D, E, and F courses have only been offered 4 times since their inception in the summer, and two of those have been run by ASCNE – the D course was run in August and the F course at HMM. In other areas of the country

- exhibitors are reluctant to enter the new courses if they don't think they are going to qualify.
- There was a taping of the ducks doing the F course, Beth Adams has the video
- There was a discussion of the Farm Trial Program – Matt Mason, Cheryl Padgett and Robyn Garret (as members of the ASCA SDC) are reviewing. The Farm Trials are not consistent around the country. Farm program exists because arenas in some parts of the country are too small to do Ranch trials. Farm program is supposed to be different than the arena types of programs – courses are not supposed to be setup in an arena – it should be working in areas around a farm.
- Oct Tracking Test –
 - It was a success, with most people qualifying.
 - Leland Perry and Cobalt earned the first ever ASCA Tracking Dog Urban (TDU) title.
- Nov 13-14 – Seekonk, MA – Sharon Ruppel
 - Gull – obedience – entries are low; taking day of entries for rally (am) and obedience (pm) – couple of stewards; could use more

On behalf of the Dnan family, I'd like to thank you for the donation that ASCNE made to ASHGI in memory of my mother. The outpouring of support from the Aussie community has been very touching to all of us kids and I think very helpful to my Dad.
Thanks again for thinking of
her. Sincerely Jen Dolan Bilbe
