President's Message

Art Landry

I hope you're having a wonderful summer. We've had some absolutely terrific weather with limited heat and plenty of rain. The sheep have had plenty of grass to graze on! Carol and I got a chance to recharge our batteries with a week of camping and boating on Long Lake near Bridgton, Maine. It seems like we spent the entire week swimming with the dogs at a fantastic sand bar. I trust you all have had a chance to get away and relax a bit!

I want to thank our terrific team for putting on some great events. Colors of Summer was profitable all around with a full Agility trial, large Rally and Obedience entries and a successful Conformation show. Don't forget we'll need someone to fill Terri's shoes as Conformation Show Chairperson for 2015.

We have a lot to offer in the coming months as well. It's been a great year for Farm Trials. As a matter of fact, Carol and I are taking our first stab at putting on some stockdog events with a Farm Trial on September 12th followed by Arena Trials on the 13th and 14th. Diane Menard has also been putting on a number of trials this year as well. We also have some great Obedience and Agility trials coming soon so please be sure to check out all the flyers towards the end of this newsletter. Don't forget you'll need to get some points for the Finals and Nationals in Tennessee next year.

Check out our new medallions on page 5. You'll earn these by completing your ATCH II through ATCH VII titles.

I'm also excited about the club's growth. We have several new members as you can see on page 6.

I guess that's about all I have for now. I'll be looking forward to seeing you all soon.

Congratulations!

Rachel Vest, Jan Wesen and Pete
Dolan were elected to the Australian Shepherd Club of America Board of Directors!

A motion was made and passed to accept the report.

Affiliate Report: Pauli Haggis presented the Affiliate Report:

The ASCA committee members and BOD have been busy affecting program changes for the new trial/show season that began on June 1. The results of their efforts which I presented as motions before the ASCA BOD at the ROM banquet, have been published in the June issue of the Aussie Times. For an in depth description of the Agility ACE program, Obedience Beginner Novice class, Renumbering of Rally Exercises, and Finals Conformation Judges packet you should consult the Aussie Times.

The following motions were before the ASCA Board of Directors ; most were voted on between June 20-27, results not yet posted. The ASCA BOD is considering the appointment of an Affiliate By Law Change Committee to oversee new Affiliate applications and proposed changes to Affiliate Policy books.

Agility: a proposed change to the new ACE Division would require each handler/dog team to enter only the ACE Division or the Championship Division for all days of a trial. The rationale for this is to simplify the software changes needed to implement the ACE program and to also keep entry forms less complicated.

Stock: a motion was passed to clarify the Advanced handler line for ducks when using Coursed D,E, and F, since the distance can change to accommodate arenas of varied dimensions.

The stockdog committee is working on a check list for farm trial sanctioning to assist members who want to put on a farm trial. They also passed a motion to require the farm trial flyer to include a list of all stock dog trials being held by the host club on the same date.

Conformation: motions:

Printing on Finals ribbons should change from "Participant" to "Conformation Finals Qualifier".

Also, a motion to include in the application for becoming a judge, a statement that the applicant will not accept any judging assignment prior to receipt of a written confirmation from the ASCA Business Office and assignment of a judge's number.

Stewards at the National Finals can compete but not under the judge they stewarded for.

Regarding the lawsuit by KODA, of which ASCA is a part, against the USDA over licensure of breeders of pets; on the positive side, the court has upheld the right of KODA to challenge the USDA. However, the Humane Society of the United States has joined forces with the USDA. This was expected, but of concern is the financial resources the HUSUS can contribute to the cause, so KODA is looking for financial donations to help defend our position. The HUSUS is also demanding access to USDA records of licensed pet breeders which is of great concern considering their propensity for conducting raids on breeding facilities.

Library Report: No report.

Newsletter Report: Art Landry stated that submission deadline for the next newsletter was July 15th.

BOD Report: No report.

Sunshine Report: Sandy Landry has had a number of strokes. Karen Miller was sending a card. Debbie Keach-Tomes' mother has been back and forth to rehab and the hospital. Kathie Chouinard lost her mother-in-law on June 20th.

The following new members have been voted in:

Katalina Bravo (Jr.)	Pawtucket, RI 02861
Carol Bolduc	Shelburne Falls, MA 01370
Linda Heath	Loudon, NH 03307
Natalie Cohen	Ellington, CT 06029

There was brief discussion regarding sponsoring a conformation pre-show at the TN Nationals. Our club doesn't have the financial means to hold one at this point.

The club talked about having medallions for earning ATCH II's, III's, etc. Arthur will follow up with Hodges'.

New Business:

Dottie received the following new member applications:

Anne Angueira, 540 Pine Cobble Drive, Williamstown, MA 01267 sponsored by Fran Swanson and Toni Lake

A motion was made and passed to consider the applications as accepted. The applicants will be posted in the next newsletter and can then be voted on by the ASCNE BOD after 30 days.

There was brief discussion concerning Harvest Moon Mania. It went well other than one incident of domestic abuse between a conformation competitor and her boyfriend.

There was considerable discussion concerning financial losses from the recent stock trial held in Portland CT. Many of the expenses seemed out of line. The membership also felt it was inappropriate to pay for feeding cattle for 3 weeks leading into the trial. Art will compose a letter to the chairperson.

Art Landry submitted a budget for the Farm and Arena Trials being held in September. The budget was accepted and approved.

The club passed around ballots for ASCA BOD openings. Pete Dolan, Rachel Vest and Jan Wesen will receive ASCNE's vote.

There was brief discussion concerning the formation of ASCME.

The club reviewed a 2015 tentative schedule:

New ATCH Medallions to be Awarded!

At our General Membership Meeting in January it was decided that ASCNE would recognize dogs and handlers who went beyond earning their Agility Trial Championship. We have now received medallions to celebrate your additional accomplishments — ATCH II through ATCH VII. If you have completed one of these levels at an ASCNE trial since January 2014, you qualify for one of these special awards. Please contact Art Landry (gpatails@aol.com) and we'll arrange to get it to you.

We'll do our best to have these awards at future ASCNE agility trials!
